PROVING THINGS ARE BETTER DONE IN TWOS

Just two weeks remain until the winners of the 2017 Northern Outback Business Awards are announced in a gala event taking place in Mount Isa and organisers Commerce North West are 'seeing double' when it comes to entertainment and special guests!

With the night to feature a host of themed entertainment ranging from the high-flying aerial artistry of Sabella Fuss from Six Foot Circus, through to fire flair bartending "it was only fitting for the Emcee role to be something a little special as well" said Commerce North West President Travis Crowther; with the two fresh smiling faces of ABC North West Queensland presenters Hailey Renault and Zara Margolis set to be just that.

To take the reins on main stage; guiding guests through the evenings formalities, Hailey and Zara together as Co-Emcees will make a perfect match for the Outback Businesses night of nights; both having intimate knowledge of many of the nominees.

"Hailey and Zara are regulars at many events and key functions all around the region" added Travis.

"With ABC North West Queensland broadcasting over such a big footprint, many of the businesses and attendees will also know the girls perhaps not in person but by voice, tuning into their regular programs."

A night honouring the efforts and achievements of individuals and businesses throughout the region; nominations were eligible for businesses and individuals from the local Government areas of Boulia, Burke, Carpentaria, Cloncurry, Croydon, Doomadgee, Etheridge, Flinders, McKinlay, Mornington, Mount Isa and Richmond.

With judging complete and the finishing touches now being applied to ensure the sold-out night is a memorable one for the 300 guests, just a few more sleeps will tell just who is to be crowned the winners of the 2017 Northern Outback Business Awards.
